

Can you play this game—in Hebrew? Of course you can!

Sorry (סליחה)

Rules

Use the standard rules you usually play by, and add these few extra rules:

- ↪ Before you play, ask in Hebrew “Is it my turn?” and/or “Is it your turn?” as if you cannot remember whose turn it is.
- ↪ When a player asks whose turn it is, answer in Hebrew.
- ↪ After drawing a card, don’t calculate your landing spot and jump there. Instead, “walk” your pawn and count the spaces in Hebrew, as you go.
- ↪ When a player uses English for any of the above, you can ding that player and they forfeit (lose) their next turn.
- ↪ Use Hebrew exclusively to say these words:
